Internet Auction Rules Explained

Internet auctions can be a great way to get rid of unwanted things in your storage room, but customs, tax and postal regulations apply when selling things over the Internet in Germany. Using the Army Post Offices to send or receive items to support a business is against military regulations and German law. To sell items commercially, individuals must use the civilian postal system or a parcel delivery service to receive merchandise or send items to buyers.

For more info visit the U.S. Customs and Border Protection Web site at www.customs.gov/xp/cgov/import/infrequent_importer_info/internet_purchases.xml.

Valuable Medical Emergency Info

Do not call or report to the Stuttgart Health Clinic for emergencies. It is not staffed or equipped to handle these situations. True emergencies, which may require ambulance service, include heart attack, poisoning, severe bleeding, unconsciousness, breathing difficulty or severe injury to the head or torso.

The German Red Cross (DRK) provides ambulance service to the Stuttgart military community; the Stuttgart Health Clinic has no ambulances. The DRK should only be used for genuine emergencies to prevent loss of life, limb or vision or to limit undue suffering.

If a true emergency exists on- or off-post, call the military police at 116/civ. 0711-680-116. The on-duty military police desk sergeant will answer this number and relay your request for ambulance service to the DRK.

Be prepared to answer several questions including the patient's name, age, sex, nature of emergency, your telephone number and location, including installation, street, building, apartment and room number. Remain calm, stay on the line until you have answered all questions and hang up only after instructed to do so.

Report Any, All Suspicious Incidents

Community members can help prevent subversion and espionage by guarding against the collection efforts of foreign intelligence services. Watch for someone who appears to be collecting information on U.S. personnel or facilities through observation, surveillance, document collection or questioning. Report all incidents to the Stuttgart Military Intelligence Office, 421-2206/civ. 0711-729-2206.
